Video soon

WYCOMBE Wanderers' compilation video of the 1998/99 season will be released later this month.

The video, called All Smiles at the Finish, includes all the goals scored at Adams Park, away goals and highlights. It also contains interviews with manager Neil Smillie, former manager John Gregory, who is now at Aston Villa, chairman Ivor Beeks and players. It will be available from Wanderers in Town in The Octagon, at £14.99.

Manager grateful for support which he hopes will continue

Getting ready for an exciting season

By Neil Smillie

CAN I start by saying a big thank you to everyone who has supported me during my time as caretaker/manager and for the overwhelming amount of support and best wishes I have been given since I officially became manager of the football club.

I have been very touched by this and it is something that I will never forget.

Certainly the reception I received on the pitch before our game versus Chesterfield was wonderful. Once again, I thank you all for this.

It is a real honour to follow the calibre of managers that have preceded me and I look forward to the challenge of taking the club further forward.

There are many changes happening within the game of football but one thing is for certain - that we have many tough and exciting games coming up next season. I am sure everyone will be looking forward to the Manchester City game, but there are others like Stoke, Reading, Fulham and Notts County as well.

At the present time, the players are taking their summer holidays, leaving me with the tasks of sorting out pre-season games, my own staff and contract negotiations with our players, as well as keeping an eye on who is available on the transfer list.

I certainly hope to keep Dave Carroll and Steve Brown for next season. They are both loyal servants of the club and firm favourites among you, the supporters.

This is the first summer of the Bosman Ruling and it will be interesting to see how this affects our game. Some players will earn large amounts of money and some will be forced out of the Football League. It will possibly take a couple of years for managers and players to fully get used to the system.

I have recently appointed Wayne

While the players are on holiday, boss Neil Smillie is still hard at work, preparing for the new season

Turner as my assistant and will shortly appoint a new youth team manager to work alongside Adrian Cole in the youth policy, something we, here at Wycombe Wanderers, consider to be a very important part of our future.

Wayne has been with me from just before the end of the season and I believe his enthusiasm for the game will rub off on the young players.

Finally, have a great summer and I look forward to seeing you at Adams Park for the pre-season friendlies. And then the new season begins...

New season will see record gates

Commercial Break
By Mark Austin
Sales & Marketing Manager

LAST season, Wycombe Wanderers saw an increase of 190 extra supporters on average at all 23 Division II matches.

Our 1996/97 league average gate of 5,223 under Alan Smith and John Gregory grew to 5,413 in 1997/98 under John Gregory and Neil Smillie.

In fact, during the eight seasons since moving to Adams Park (the last average league attendance in 1989/90 at Loakes Park was 1,890), our average league attendance has been 4,692.

Since joining the Nationwide Football League five seasons ago, Wycombe Wanderers' average Football League attendance has been 5,307.

This means that more than 610,000 supporters have attended league matches at Adams Park during the last five seasons, four of which have been in Division Two.

With Reading, Stoke City and Manchester City joining us next season from the First Division, we can look forward to some bumper gates.

It would be nice next season to break the record league gate at Adams Park of 8,438 (Watford 1997), as well as the highest ever attendance at Adams Park of 9,007 (West Ham FA Cup).

It will not be easy next season, with the seven newcomers to the Division all wishing to do well. Macclesfield have matched our achievement of gaining promotion from Division Three at the first attempt.

They, like Notts County (Division Three champions), Lincoln and play-off winners Colchester will not give us easy matches.

Since the Blues entered Division Two four seasons ago, only six clubs, including Wycombe Wanderers, have not been relegated or promoted, which means we will have played the following five clubs home and away during each of our five seasons in Division Two: Bournemouth; Blackpool; Bristol Rovers; Wrexham and York City.

The 1998/99 Wycombe Wanderers season tickets went on sale last Monday.

The board of directors has set children's season tickets for three to nine-year-olds £22 cheaper than last season, at only £1 per match to sit or stand. Children under three can get free season tickets with a paying parent/guardian and youngsters aged ten to 15 can get season tickets at £46, that's only £2 per match, whether they wish to sit in the Family Enclosure or stand on the Valley Terrace.

The added bonus for all 1998/99 junior season ticket holders aged three to 15 is that their season ticket includes membership of the Official Junior Blues Supporters Club (worth £15), with a whole range of benefits.

Another step forward has been the inclusion of all pre-season friendlies and cup matches in the price of our vice-president season ticket.

A WWFC "VP" is an executive season ticket holder. Their package includes a car pass, use of the Keen Lounge, a matchday programme, a premium seat in the Amersham and Wycombe College Stand, tea/coffee at half-time and a meal after the match. A VP package costs £531.91 plus VAT (if paid by July 3, 1998) for next season. It includes entry to all pre-season friendlies, Coca-Cola Cup, FA Cup and Auto Windscreens Shield matches.

Corporately speaking, Manchester City is a real blessing for Wycombe Wanderers. Also, Fulham and Bristol Rovers losing in the play-offs will really help executive box and matchday guest hospitality sales.

Other popular matches are against Reading, Stoke City, Luton Town, Burnley, Blackpool, Preston North End and Oldham Athletic.

We are looking forward to our fifth successive season in Division Two under new manager Neil Smillie.

Neil and the players would welcome your highly valued support for the 1998/99 season. Remember we start next season with an unbeaten run of six matches, having lost only two matches out of 12 since Neil Smillie's appointment as manager.

We look forward to welcoming you to Adams Park in July for our pre-season friendlies and don't forget, Division Two gets underway on Saturday, August 8.

will have first priority to buy two tickets.

In all cases (league, cups or pre-season friendlies) 1998/99 WWFC season ticket holders will get first priority before the cut-off dates.

Tickets for all the Blues pre-season friendlies will go on sale from 9.15am on Monday, July 6, and tickets for the Blues' initial Nationwide Football League matches and the Coca-Cola Cup 1st Round will go on sale from 9.15am on Monday, July 13.

THE club is making an effort to attract more students to matches by charging only £46 for a 1998/99 season ticket in Valley Terrace, if purchased before July 3. After that date, the price rises to £65.

The club is specifically targeting students from Amersham and Wycombe College and Buckinghamshire University College.

Student season tickets are available to those under 22 in full time education.

● All season tickets are available from Wanderers in Town, the commercial offices at Adams Park or the creditcard hotline on (01494) 441118.

Award for Martin Taylor

THE Supporters Player of the Month for April was Martin Taylor. Congratulations to Martin (pictured), who was presented with his award by Derek Vere, chairman and managing director of Verco Office Furniture Ltd, the official club sponsors.

The club would like to thank Verco for sponsoring the Supporters Player of the Month Award yet again this season.

Ground rules work against smaller clubs

The Blues Supporters Club
By Keith Blagbrough
(secretary)

IT'S nearly the end of the season and at the time of writing, the final play-off places are still to be decided.

But what have Wycombe Wanderers, Macclesfield Town, Lincoln City, Colchester United, and Scarborough got in common? Two things – firstly, they are already in Division Two or involved in the play-offs for that division and secondly, they are all former Vauxhall Conference teams who have earned automatic promotion.

Of course there should have been more but for the rejection of clubs whose grounds did not reach a certain standard in an artificial time limit, despite being markedly better than the grounds of some teams already in the Football League.

New blood working up through the divisions can only be healthy for the game, providing there are no artificial barriers in the way of such progress.

We hear that the Premier clubs are now trying to restrict promotion/relegation to two up and two down. Protectionism cuts both ways. If you are one of those going down, you will find it much harder to get back up again, so perhaps those who are taking this short-sighted view should think again.

Ian wins award

IAN Hendry was named the Youth Team Player of the Month for April by youth team manager Adrian Cole.

A presentation was made to Ian on behalf of official youth team sponsors the Walters Group of Companies.

The award for April was sponsored by Lucozade Sport.

Monday, November 23 – guest speaker Norman Whiteside and comedian Peter Lucas

Monday, January 25, 1999 – guest speaker Garth Chilcott and comedian Mike Pugh

Top team: under tens winners Sunbury, who beat Parkfield in the final at Adams Park

Six-a-side day wows parents

ON May 2 and 3, the Community Scheme hosted an under nines and under tens six-a-side football tournament at Adams Park.

Both days saw more than 20 teams competing. Teams came from as far as Reading, Oxford, the London Boroughs and Milton Keynes.

The tournament was run for two reasons. The first was to allow the children's parents to see our impressive stadium with its pitch looking in fantastic condition.

Many people who visited that weekend had not been to Adams Park before and commented how

COMMUNITY NEWS
By Nas & Dave

well the ground works, and how impressed they were by the size of the stadium.

The second reason for the competition was to provide a great scouting opportunity.

Managers and parents were pleasantly surprised how professionally-run the tournament was and were equally impressed by the set up of the club and its youth system, with Adrian Cole (development officer) helping out on the two days.

The whole occasion was a resounding success. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and even the weather was kind to us.

The results were as follows: Winners, under nines – Risborough Rangers; runners up, under nines – Decatur Colts; Winners, under tens – Sunbury, runners up, under tens – Parkfield.

Thank you very much to everybody who supported the event this season and we hope everybody who attended the courses enjoyed themselves.

No pre-season wilderness months this year World Cup will keep me going

By Alan Parry

WHAT a wonderful summer lies ahead. Instead of spending those endless weeks of June and July waiting impatiently for next season's fixtures to be published – and wondering how to survive till the first pre-season friendly – we have the prospect of watching the biggest football tournament in history.

The 1998 World Cup promises to be the biggest and one of the best ever staged. With 32 countries involved – and home interest in the shape of both England and Scotland – it's certain to provide gripping entertainment.

I'm lucky enough to be going to France as lead commentator for the national commercial station Talk Radio. I'll be joined by a team of experts which includes my Sky colleague Andy Gray along with familiar football names like Clive Allen, Lou Macari and Alan Mullery.

Talk Radio, which broadcasts on the medium wave on 1053 and 1089, will provide live coverage of all the matches involving England and Scotland plus the best of the rest.

I'll be commenting on the opening game between Brazil and Scotland and I've already got my seat booked for the World Cup final on July 12.

If you can't get in front of a television set, why not give Talk Radio a try? Better still, watch the game on TV with the sound turned down and Talk Radio turned up – I'll guarantee it's the only way you'll get to hear the name of Wycombe Wanderers mentioned during France 98!

The club will be doing its bit to create a World Cup atmosphere at Adams Park. We've acquired the latest design in big screens so that you can watch the games in the company of your mates. You can eat, drink and see the action in glorious, life-size technicolour – and all in the homely surroundings of your favourite football club.

Of course, once the World Cup is over, it won't be long before you are back at Adams Park for the start of a new season.

We have some exciting pre-season games arranged, including a visit from our old boss John Gregory with Aston Villa. Our new line Ringing the Blues will bring details of dates and kick-off times.

And what a season we have to look forward to in 1998-99! A new manager, new players and a fresh and different approach.

Neil Smillie will be spending his summer planning meticulously for the coming campaign, which I am convinced will be the most exciting in Wycombe's history.

The quality of the clubs we'll be facing is unprecedented. I am hopeful that we'll fill Adams Park for the first time ever for a league game when Manchester City are the visitors. Forget their recent troubles, City are one of the biggest clubs in the country – in their distinguished past they have been league champions and winners of the FA, Coca Cola and European Cup Winners Cups.

Then there's the prospect of a first ever league derby against our close neighbours Reading – another fixture which should provide a full house at Adams Park.

The other relegated club, Stoke City, also enjoy massive support and depending on the outcome of the play-offs, we could be facing the Second Division's glamour club Fulham and our old rivals Colchester United.

We'll be renewing acquaintances with Notts County and Lincoln City and there will be visits from other famous clubs like Blackpool, Preston North End, Burnley, Oldham Athletic, Millwall and Luton Town.

This is the perfect time to get yourself a great deal by buying a season ticket at a special rate. It's the only way of guaranteeing your seat at Adams Park for those big games I've mentioned.

So, enjoy your summer and I hope that you all come back enthused and refreshed for the big challenges which lie ahead for Wycombe Wanderers in the season 1998-99.

New programme

WYCOMBE Wanderers have announced that the matchday programme is going up to £2.

But fans will get more for their money. The programme has been redesigned with a wider shape and will carry 44 pages, of which there will be a maximum 16 pages of adverts. For the first time, it will include a page of statistics bought in at a cost of £1,500 from the Football Information Service, and will also feature a guest writer every week.

Football club chairman Ivor Becks made the decision to put the price up. But he has promised supporters to hold the cost for at least two years.

New red kit launched

WYCOMBE Wanderers launched its new Mizuno away kit on Monday, along with the sale of 1998/99 season tickets. The Mizuno away kit, pictured on Keith Ryan, is available exclusively from Wanderers in Town in the Octagon Centre, High Wycombe.

The Mizuno replica shirts cost £29.99 each for child sizes and £39.99 each for adult sizes; shorts are £14.99 per pair (child) and £18.99 (adult) and socks cost £6.99 per pair (child) or £7.99 per pair (adult).

Super replica kit deals are available on the following kits: navy and sky blue quartered home kit; yellow and navy quartered away kit; all red away kit (new). The deals offer shirt, shorts and socks for only £39.97 for children and £54.97 for adults.

Man City game ups box price

WYCOMBE Wanderers have doubled the price of executive boxes for the Blues' Division Two match against Manchester City at Adams Park next season, in response to high demand.

The normal price for ten people is £500, plus VAT, which includes four car park passes, a tour of the stadium, exclusive use of an executive box, ten matchday programmes, use of the Woodlands executive lounge, a hot and cold buffet and tea/coffee/biscuits at half-time.

All 20 of the executive boxes have a glass frontage and remote control colour teletext television. There are two boxes situated on the half-way line at Adams Park and these carry a £100, plus VAT, position premium.

Additional seats for each box can be purchased at £100, plus VAT, per person. For the Manchester City Nationwide Football League match the cost is now £1,000, plus VAT, for the above package.

Guest hospitality for this match is £80, plus VAT, per person (normal price – £35 to £55, plus VAT), which includes a car pass, a tour of Adams Park; an Amersham and Wycombe College Stand seat; a three-course waitress served meal, followed by coffee; a matchday programme; tea/coffee/biscuits at half-time; and access to the players' bar.

All corporate packages for all matches for next season are already on sale.

Priority cards

WWFC is launching a new membership scheme for next season.

The cost is £5 for children, £10 for OAPs and £15 for adults. Benefits include a new Blues Membership Scheme Card; £5 off Vere Suite membership; 25 per cent off room hire; free entry to all Avon Insurance Combination matches at Adams Park; a five to 10 per cent discount in WWFC's clubshops; priority booking for cup matches; free use of Adams Park car park on non-matchdays and a ten per cent discount on anything on the specials board at Centre Spot from Monday to Friday.

This scheme is free to 1998/99 season ticket holders.

Cut-price kits

WYCOMBE Wanderers are offering local football teams the chance to buy a cut-price team strip in the Blues colours.

The offer includes sky blue shirts with navy stripes, sky blue shorts with navy detail and a choice of navy or sky blue socks – an old design previously used at Adams Park.

As all items will be manufactured to order, a full range of both children's and adult's sizes can be supplied. Kits can be personalised at an extra cost.

Adult kits cost £20, plus VAT and children's kits cost £16.95 each. Contact the sales and marketing department at Adams Park on (01494) 472100.

New hospitality

TWO new hospitality packages will be available for all matches at Adams Park next season.

Details of the Matchday Cornerflag Sponsor Package and the Matchday Exclusive Kit Sponsor Package are available from the sales and marketing department on (01494) 472100.
